"Young man, it might be safer for you to label yourself with something like—Perishable—no delay. You are evidently too fresh for this section. Now scraps that sign off or the trunk can't go."

VERY PLAIN TALK.

This Rock Lake Herald, Mr. Greenway's pocket organ, commences an article, on it contemporary the Pilot Mound Signal, by saying—

"Since we started this journal, we have endeavored to fill it with pure literature and to catch all its items in language so chaste that you need not blush to have it in your family," and concludes with these choice expressions—

"We wish to brand this man before this community and this world as a blackhearted shyster and so damnable a liar as only to be fit for freedom in the realms of Satan whom he serves zealously."

Can't the virtuous Greenway do something with his pet fool!

Gents' Furnishing Emporium.

GENL MEN—

Seeing the lack of such an Establishment in the growing and prosperous City, we have just opened in the line at Rosser Ave., two doors from 5th Street. Our aim is to furnish the City with the best class of Ordered Clothing and Furnishings yet introduced here. Having had eleven years' experience in London, Eng., doing business with the best houses in Great Britain, we are therefore buying and importing from the most reliable sources, thus saving the profits of Middle Men, we are able to offer special advantages to our patrons.

We have on hand, Colored Worsteds, Broad Cloths, Dressing and Pique, and Scotch Tweeds and Suitings. Also a large range of Canadian Tweeds. Christy's Stiff, American Flannel and Canadian Flannel. Hosiery, Gloves, and Shirts and Shirts in all the latest styles of Gents' Furnishings, we have a Choice Selection, and we hope by combining the above with the best practical skill and workmanship, to win the confidence and support of the worthy citizens of Brandon and its vicinity.

We are, Gentlemen,

Yours, etc.,

COLE & SANDERS.

That man Wiggins is not extinguished yet. The Maritime Provinces and Eastern States are to be visited by him as a lecturer. What a happy result for Ottawa?

Unable to find a resting place in Canada for their surplus whiskey the American distillers are shipping it to Bermuda. The best thing to be done with the insubstantial article is to prevent it to land here. It couldn't hurt him, and might save a good many headaches to other folks.—St. Thomas Journal.

For a change Hayti is indulging in a revolution. The Government forces have just been defeated, so we may expect the rebels to soon be running the Government, and the present authorities acting as rebels.—St. Thomas Journal.

Repeal of prohibition against women are becoming so numerous that, before long, no woman will feel safe in listening to the tender attentions of a lover without securing from him a recommendation of all claims against her estate.

The French navy, which has been stationed in New York harbor, is missing. Until it comes up we sincerely hope Secretary Chandler will not let the American navy venture out without a check.

The San Francisco Board of Education has decided to exclude all Mongolian scholars. The board would have no better here. Neither Mongolian nor Chinese can get in. The schools are too crowded.

A scandal has been revealed in Roumanian court circles by the refusal of the Grand Duke to attend the coronation of the Czar. Constructing evidently believes in the survival of the fittest, and prefers not to have himself butchered to make a Russian holiday.

Owing to the unprecedented demand for passage across the Atlantic, the Allan Mail Steamship Company were to-day compelled to dispatch three of their fleet, the Persian, Austrian and German, carrying 2,400 emigrants for Canada. A large number also left on the Dominion line, steamer Ontario, making altogether nearly 3,000 people leaving Liverpool in one day for the Dominion, more than double that of any day on record. Nearly half the number are bound for Manitoba, and it is estimated that they take away capital to the amount of upwards of $1,000,000.

TRIOLEBOME INDIANS.

It is rumored that the Indians at the end of the track are troublesome and are forcibly preventing the natives from going to work. It is further rumored that the Mounted Police at Regina and Troy have been ordered to the front to preserve order, and that they left Regina last night. This morning and again later telegrams were sent to Regina and to the end of the track, but no definite reply has been received up to the hour of going to press.—Winnipeg Times.

HIS JOKE ON THE BAGGAGEMAN.

The other day a baggage-wagon brought a trunk to the depot which was labeled "Dynamite within—smash if you dare."

The trunk was closely followed by a young man who had about seven minutes to get his trunk and catch the train. When he presented his ticket and asked for a check the baggage master replied:

"This trunk can't go as baggage."

"Why?"

"The contents are dangerous. You'll have to remove it from here at once or I'll make trouble."

"But there is no dynamite within."

"There is the warning."

"Yes, but that was for a joke on the baggage men."

"Young man, a railroad never jokes. Get that trunk out of here."

"Come, old fellow, it was only in fun," entreated the smart Aleck. "I have only five minutes to catch the train."

"If you do not remove the dangerous trunk I shall have to call an officer," was the firm reply.

"I tell you it is not dangerous."

"Let me inspect it."

This was indignantly refused to, and nothing more dangerous than four shirts which badly needed washing were discovered. By this time the train had departed, leaving the joker with eight hours on his hands, and as the trunk was released he was handed the scrap of the advice—
